

Case Study - Healthcare

Client

Epsom and St Helier Hospitals
NHS Trust

Project Name

Diabetic Unit, St Helier Hospital

Duration

9 Weeks

Value

£390,000

Contract Administrator:

Epsom and St Helier Hospitals NHS
Trust

Architect:

Epsom and St Helier Hospitals NHS
Trust

Quantity Surveyor:

Epsom and St Helier Hospitals NHS
Trust

M&E Consultant:

Epsom and St Helier Hospitals NHS
Trust

Structural Engineer:

Buxton Associates

Description

Refurbishment to an area of the 1st Floor of Ferguson House at St Helier Hospital including demolitions, new partitions, M&E works and refurbishment to create new reception area, patient waiting room, consultation rooms, patient training kitchen, stores, seminar room and offices.

Testimonial

We engaged Storm Building Ltd on the Diabetes Relocation project after they were successful within an open tendering process, I have found them to be professional in their approach and cooperative.

Storm and their site staff were easy to work with and committed to delivering high standards of quality, with an eye on the programme, we would be happy to work with them again on future schemes

Andrew Warman,
Deputy Head of Capital Projects

Epsom and St Helier University Hospitals
NHS Trust

